

ON THE SAME PAGE:

HOW TO PLAN A SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITY READING PROGRAM FOR YOUR LIBRARY

Are you looking for ways to begin or reinvigorate a Community Reading Program at your own library? Learn how these libraries have successfully integrated the programs into their own unique communities, how they began, and what they have learned over the years. Join us for a lively, informative, and inspiring discussion on how you can accomplish this on any budget. This is sure to be a special event!

FEATURED SPEAKER:

Nancy Pearl

Nationally known librarian and author of Book Lust and other readers advisory titles
Nancy created the first community read – What If Everyone in Seattle Read the Same Book?

PANELISTS:

Jennifer Lizak, Coordinator of Special Projects, Cultural and Civic Engagement, Chicago Public Library

Pam Schwarting, Info Services Supervisor, Arlington Heights Memorial Library

Brittany Hoornaert Smith, Assistant Director and Head of Patron Services, Westmont Public Library

Thursday, March 23, 2017

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Northbrook Public Library Auditorium
1201 Cedar Ln, Northbrook, IL 60062

TICKETS

$25 members

$35 non-members

Register online:

<https://arrtonthesamepage.eventbrite.com>

Questions?

contact mhominick@northbrook.info

SPONSORED BY

